Description

Position at Catapult Learning

Catapult Learning is a provider of K–12 contracted instructional services to public and private schools throughout the US, specializing in at-risk youth and students who are struggling; we are a company with over 40 years of excellence in education.

Catapult Learning is looking for qualified and experienced Reading and/or Math Interventionists in the Danville, VA area! Full-Time, small group teaching positions available. These positions are in face-to-face environments. Catapult's new Reading and Math curriculum for grades K-8 is available for use and/or the school's curriculum may be used.

Job Duties:

- Instruct Reading and/or Math to small groups in a face-to-face school setting (and virtually, if necessary).
- Attend training sessions and deliver designated instructional models and strategies in readiness, reading, mathematics, and/or writing skills to eligible students through utilization of company-designed materials and educational strategies.
- Maintain individualized skill-appropriate lesson plans provided for you by Catapult Learning.
- Establish and maintain student forms and files as required by company, local, state, and federal agencies.
- Maintain consistent communication with company supervisors, classroom teachers, principals, and parents.

Enjoy the Following Benefits:

- Competitive pay

- An attractive and robust full suite of benefits for FT employees
- Curriculum and teaching materials provided
- Paid training
- Paid planning/prep time
- Small group instruction (you are not the main classroom teacher, but instead, in a separate area working with students who need extra help)
- Growth potential
- Company support and quality assurance
- Opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of students

Requirements:

- Active VA Teaching Certificate
- Bachelor's Degree or higher
- A minimum of 2 years of experience with instructing students (K-12)
- Experience with both onsite classroom and virtual instruction preferred
- Working knowledge of MS Office and virtual meeting programs (Zoom, Teams, etc.) preferred
- A positive and enthusiastic attitude towards students, administration, parents, and other internal and external customers
